We Gather...

Call to Worship

ONE: Jesus calls us.

ALL: We recognize the voice of our teacher.

ONE: Jesus calls with a renewed message.

ALL: We are straining our ears for this good news

ONE: Jesus calls a new realm into being.

ALL: We hear the call with hope and anticipation.

ONE: Jesus calls to a new way of life.

ALL: We will answer the call, we will follow.

Opening Hymn – #638 Take Time to be Holy

Opening Prayer

Praise God. We thank you, God, with all our heart. You have created an amazing world for us to live in and we are thankful. Your love is steadfast and true. Your intent is for all to be happy and whole. We witness your way of love in all creation, and are pleased to be invited to be part of it. We praise your holy name, as we seek to live out Wisdom's teaching, in harmony with creation and breathing the breath of life...

Time for Kids – Every Move I Make (video)

Help us understand, Gracious One, so our response to your call is clear. When we do not hear or heed you the first time, may you be patient with us, calling us again and again until our understanding is clear and our spirits ready to act in your will. May we see the wonderful creation around us as well as the wonder of the creation that is us. We pray in the name of the Christ. Amen.

2 Corinthians 5:20-6:10

Because of this decision we don't evaluate people by what they have or how they look. We looked at the Messiah that way once and got it all wrong, as you know. We certainly don't look at him that way anymore. Now we look inside, and what we see is that anyone united with the Messiah gets a fresh start, is created new. The old life is gone; a new life burgeons! Look at it! All this comes from the God who settled the relationship between us and him, and then called us to settle our relationships with each other. God put the world square with himself through the Messiah, giving the world a fresh start by offering forgiveness of sins. God has given us the task of telling everyone what he is doing. We're Christ's representatives. God uses us to persuade men and women to drop their differences and enter into God's work of making things right between them. We're speaking for Christ himself now: Become friends with God; he's already a friend with you. 21How? you ask. In Christ. God put the wrong on him who never did anything wrong, so we could be put right with God.

Staying at Our Post

Companions as we are in this work with you, we beg you, please don't squander one bit of this marvelous life God has given us. God reminds us, I heard your call in the nick of time; The day you needed me, I was there to help. Well, now is the right time to listen, the day to be helped. Don't put it off; don't frustrate God's work by showing up late, throwing a question mark over everything we're doing. Our work as God's servants gets validated—or not—in the details. People are watching us as we stay at our post, alertly, unswervingly . . . in hard times, tough times, bad times; when we're beaten up, jailed, and mobbed; working hard, working late, working without eating; with pure heart, clear head, steady hand; in gentleness, holiness, and honest love; when we're telling the truth, and when God's showing his power; when we're doing our best setting things right; when we're praised, and when we're blamed; slandered, and honored; true to our word, though distrusted; ignored by the world, but recognized by God; terrifically alive, though rumored to be dead; beaten within an inch of our lives, but refusing to die; immersed in tears, yet always filled with deep joy; living on handouts, yet enriching many; having nothing, having it all.
